Capstone Title named to Austin Business Journal's 2018 “Fast 50”

Local title company is the only title company on list of fastest growing companies in Central Texas

AUSTIN, Texas – Capstone Title, a full-service, real estate title and closing services company in Austin, Texas, has been included in Austin Business Journal's 2018 “Fast 50” list. The list highlights local companies with outstanding growth for the past three years, with some recording compound annual growth in the triple digits since 2015. Capstone Title is the only title company in Central Texas to make it on the list.

To win a spot on the coveted list, companies must demonstrate annual net revenue in each of the past three fiscal years, and have minimum net revenue more than $500,000 in each fiscal year of 2015, 2016 and 2017. Companies must have headquarters in Travis, Hays, Williamson, Caldwell Bastrop or Burnett County, and the winners are separated in two categories – one for annual revenue of less than $10 million, and one for revenue of more than $10 million a year.

“Capstone Title seeks to help the Austin community learn, grow, and expand,” says Capstone Title CEO Brad Compere. “We feel honored to be included on the list, as we have worked hard to ensure that the community’s real estate efforts are supported as the city expands.”

This isn’t the first accolade awarded to Capstone Title this year. They recently were listed 1026 on the 2018 Inc. 5000, Inc. magazine’s 37th-annual list of America’s most rapidly growing private companies. Capstone recently experienced a three-year sales growth of 479 percent, securing its place in this year’s lineup alongside the country’s top independent small businesses.

About Capstone Title

Capstone Title is owned by Brad Compere, an Austin real estate attorney and Managing Partner of Compere & Gorman, PLLC, a Texas Real Estate Law Firm. When you think of a title company, you may think of transactions – not relationships. Capstone Title, a full-service, real estate title and closing services company in Austin, Texas, sees it differently. In fact, Capstone Title’s core values revolve all around love: They love being open and honest, love their team members and clients, love serving others, and love learning and growing.
